

ICT Academy Awards are presented to A.V.C College of Engineering

Puducherry, Oct.15: A.V.C. College of Engineering , Mannampandal, Mayiladuthurai, ICT 6 Academy Awards were presented (pictured).

ICT in Puducherry the 60th edition of the Academy, titled 'Future of Development, Technological Capacities and Inclusive Growth' (BRIDGE-24) and award ceremony was held on Monday.

In the seminar, academicians and industrialists discussed about new innovations, modern technologies and their applications in the field of education. And also colleges across Tamil Nadu and Puducherry were honored with awards for best performing colleges.

According to this, A.V.C. College of Engineering has achieved success through consistent performance, steady expansion in the academic sector, high-quality education and the establishment of good work chances for students, and an excellent internal structure. In recognition of the same the ICT Academy provided 3 prestigious Awards to A.V.C. college of Engineering for successfully organizing and completing Certification of Recognition E-Sevai For All Award , MongoDB for Academia Partnership Award and Certification of Membership for Centre of Excellence for Youth Empowerment under Infosys Foundation Finishing School for Employability. The Awards are collected by Dr.V.Padmavathi - Associate Professor (Dept. of IT),Dr.R.Sudha – Assistant Professor (Dept. of CSE) and SenthilGanesh – Placement Officer (Dept. of MECH) from A.V.C. College of Engineering. ICT Academy extends its congratulations to the Judge Administrator K.Venkataraman, Director Dr.M.Senthilmurugan, Principal Dr.P.Balasubramanian and Vice Principal Dr.S.Selvamuthukumar for winning this Valuable award for A.V.C. College of Engineering.

